Prairie View vs Arkansas A & M - New Year's Day
2. Class Work Resumes January 2
3. Prairie View Open Basketball Tournament January 4-5
4. Final Examinations (First Semester) January 21-25
5. Registration (Second Semester) January 28-29
6. Classes Begin (Second Semester) January 30

B. REMINDERS

1. Poll Tax - Remember that January 30, 1952 is the last day to pay Poll Tax. It is our responsibility as citizens to meet this requirement for the privilege of voting in the State of Texas.
2. Community Chest - Those who have not taken care of this community contribution should do so at the earliest convenience.
3. Texas Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Act - The recent Texas Legislature passed the Texas Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Act, effective January 1, which is a security type safety responsibility law. In case of accident, security must be deposited (subject to exceptions), and proof of financial responsibility for the future is required. No one is required to carry liability insurance.

C. OPEN BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Each year, the college sponsors an open basketball tournament at the beginning of the season. Some twenty-five or more colleges have already entered which include the major teams in the south. Scheduled for January 4-5, this activity will give the Prairie View family as well as the coaches and players an opportunity to observe the very best in collegiate basketball, and will serve as an indicator for the teams to watch in the coming season.

D. FINAL EXAMINATIONS (First Semester)

January 21 through 25 are the important dates to remember for it is the close of our first half of academic work for the term. Teachers are urged to give full emphasis to the important "check up" time, and schedule, which will be released soon, should be followed very closely in conducting the examinations.

E. REGISTRATION

The Registrar's Office announces that they have tentatively set the week of January 14 for advanced registration for the second semester by all students who are currently enrolled.

The regular registration period, January 28-29 will be observed for new students and those regular students who failed to take advantage of the advanced registration period. All fees must be paid prior to registration.

F. APPRECIATION

- 1. To the Entertainment Committee for a most enjoyable Faculty Banquet.
- 2. To the Committee responsible for the University Christian Mission. This full week of religious emphasis was very well executed, and its activities contributed greatly to our moral and religious development.
- 3. To those who guided the programs of the "Y" Leadership Institute. This 16th annual conference was very inspiring and I believe the 400 or more young people who attended were thoroughly impressed.

H. BEST WISHES

For a Happy and Prosperous New Year

With the closing of the old year, Prairie View marked up its seventy-fifth year of service to Texas and the nation.

We are more than ever convinced that our part in the development of this state and our contribution to the social, economic, and moral advancement of a large segment of its population has been fully realized.

Each of you figured largely in this growth and success. It is my hope that as we face the New Year and another period of service to the cause of education, we will continue to give a full measure of our time and talents and press ever onward in the development of a greater Prairie View.

May the New Year bring each of you happiness and success.

Very truly yours,

E. B. Evans
